April 11, 2012 - by Food Editor Gail Ciampa

New beer event for Newport

Newport's Craft Beer Festival will debut on Saturday, April 28, from 2-6 p.m. at the Great Friends Meeting House, at the corner of Farewell and Marlborough streets.

This first of what expects to be an annual affair is sponsored by Pour Judgement Bar and Grill and the Newport Storm Brewery. Some 30 New England breweries are expected to participate on this historic site whose building dates back to 1699.

Guests will be given the opportunity to try small samples of all manner of craft brews. The list includes Blue Hills Brewery, Trinity Brewhouse, Union Station Brewery, Mayflower Brewing Co., Cape Ann Brewing, Goose Island Beer, Harpoon Brewery, Sabago Brewing Company, and, of course, Newport Storm.

Great Friends Meeting House in Newport is the place to sample the suds from 30 New England breweries on Saturday, April 28.

Food from local restaurants will be available for purchase. The event is being held the last weekend of the season for free parking in Newport. The South Shore Homebrew club will be brewing on site and happy to answer questions of those curious about learning to brew themselves.

This is a 21-plus event. Proceeds will benefit the Newport Historical Society. Tickets are $45 and sold at NewportStorm.com/gearstore/. Tickets include admission, beer samples and a souvenir glass.
